

PATHFINDER SOCIETY ORGANIZED PLAY

REGIONAL COORDINATOR REQUIREMENTS

Last Updated July 16, 2012

A regional coordinator is a local and regional organizer and point of contact for Paizo Publishing's worldwide organized play campaign, Pathfinder Society. These regional coordinators are called "venture-captains" after their counterparts in the Pathfinder Society campaign. Pathfinder Society is always looking for new volunteers. If you are interested in applying to become a regional coordinator, please read the details below on how to apply.

Basic Requirements

- The Pathfinder Society Organized Play Regional Coordinator is a volunteer position. Regional coordinators are not Paizo Publishing employees. Applying for the volunteer position of regional coordinator means you acknowledge these restrictions.
- Regional Coordinators must be willing and able to fulfill a list of monthly volunteer duties below.
- Regional Coordinators must always strive to act in a professional, positive, and outgoing manner when functioning in their capacity as volunteers for Paizo Publishing.
- You must be 18 years of age or older and you must be willing to sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) with Paizo Publishing.

Duties & Expectations

- Be the go-to contact for your local area or region of responsibility; assist local game days, game clubs, conventions, or any other such group wanting a Pathfinder Society Organized Play presence at their event.
- Build a positive rapport with all local game store managers and employees.
- Build and maintain monthly an email list of local volunteers.
- Maintain a full report of local game stores (including: contact information, manager's name, what Paizo products they carry, and whether they are running Pathfinder Society Organized Play events (with or without your assistance) on a quarterly basis. Work with these stores to ensure they are registered on paizo.com.
- Ensure that all Pathfinder Society Organized Play sessions run in your local area or region are reported and reported accurately, and that all Pathfinder Society Organized Play events are entered properly to display on the Events page (paizo.com/pathfinderSociety/events).
- Be a Paizo Publishing product expert. Familiarize yourself with all of our product lines and be comfortable talking about all of them.

- Provide the Campaign Coordinator with frequent feedback from game stores, volunteers, and players in your local area or region of responsibility.
- Game Master a minimum of one Pathfinder Society Organized Play session per month.
- Organize a minimum of two Pathfinder Society Organized Play convention or game store events per month in your local or regional area of responsibility.
- Attend PaizoCon or Gen Con and work for Paizo at one (or both) of those conventions annually. Non-US regional coordinators will be expected to attend large local conventions to be determined.
- Keep up to date on rulings, answer questions, and participate on a weekly basis on the Pathfinder Society Organized Play messageboards and on the private Regional Coordinator messageboard.

Rewards

- Free attendance at PaizoCon or Gen Con (or both), including free badges, a portion of a hotel room (for Gen Con only), booth vouchers, possible product rewards, and special exclusive events. In order to receive the free attendance, the regional coordinator must arrange his or her own travel to and from show, must provide for his or her own food, and must for volunteer for a minimum of five slots at Gen Con or a minimum of three slots at PaizoCon.
- Regional Coordinator dinner at PaizoCon or Gen Con (or both).
- Free PDFs of Paizo products added to your My Downloads section on paizo.com.
- Annual exclusive special scenario available to regional coordinators and 4-star GMs only for one year.
- Messageboard tag in the Pathfinder Society messageboards: Venture-Captain, Your Region. (Note: this tag will display while posting on the Pathfinder Society messageboards.)