

PATHFINDER ADVENTURE PATH:

REIGN OF WINTER

PATHFINDER SOCIETY ORGANIZED PLAY

The Reign of Winter Adventure Path may be played as part of the Pathfinder Society Organized Play campaign for credit. These adventures are produced for a wider audience than just Pathfinder Society Organized Play, and are thus structured differently from scenarios. As such, the specific rules changes needed for receiving Pathfinder Society Organized Play credit when playing these adventures are presented here.

KEY DIFFERENCES FROM SCENARIOS

Pathfinder Adventure Paths consist of six chapters, each roughly four times the length of a standard scenario, and can take months or even years to complete. They do not contain faction missions, nor are they tiered for play by characters over a wide range of levels. Thematically, most Adventure Paths do not assume the characters are Pathfinders. GMs and players are encouraged to create a reasonable plot hook for their characters' participation.

SANCTIONED CONTENT

Because of the length and scope of Pathfinder Adventure Paths, only specific portions of these adventures are sanctioned for Pathfinder Society credit. In general, a single dungeon complex or adventuring location is sanctioned from each Adventure Path volume, though some variation from this may arise from time to time. The following sections of the Reign of Winter Adventure Path are considered sanctioned content.

LEGAL PATHFINDER SOCIETY CHARACTERS

All players must use an existing Pathfinder Society character (without modification) within the legal character levels range for the specific Shattered Star adventure being played.

For the sanctioned content in "The Snows of Summer" and "The Shackled Hut," if you do not have a character in the correct level range, you may use a Pathfinder Society pregenerated character, available on paizo.com. You may apply the credit for the adventure to a Pathfinder

SANCTIONED CONTENT KEY

Adventure	Sanctioned Content	Legal Character Levels
"The Snows of Summer"	An Early Frost and The Depths of Winter (area A1-P5)	1-2
"The Shackled Hut"	The Dragon of Whitethrone, The Endless Forest, and The Dancing Hut of Baba Yaga (area L1-N5)	5-7
"Maiden, Mother, Crone"	The Maiden, The Mother, and The Crone (areas C1-E9)	8-10
"The Frozen Stars"	Arriving at Spurhorn to Treasury (the siege to area D21)	11-13
"Rasputin Must Die"	Akuvskaya Prison (areas C-H)	13-15
"The Witch Queen's Revenge"	Part 3 to Conclusion (Journey to the Island to area M7)	15-17

Society character as soon as she reaches the level of the pregenerated character played. Equipment listed on the pregenerated character sheet may only be sold to clear conditions, such as death, during the play of the adventure and any remaining wealth does not carry over at the end of the sanctioned content.

Alternatively, if you are participating in the Reign of Winter Adventure Path with an ongoing group undertaking the entire, six-chapter campaign, you may receive credit for playing the sanctioned portions of the adventure as if you had played a pregenerated character. In this case, GMs running the Adventure Path are not bound to the rules of the Pathfinder Society Organized Play campaign (such as 20-point buy, unavailability of hero points, etc.) when running the campaign or the sanctioned portion of the adventure. Pathfinder Society characters and characters from an ongoing Adventure Path campaign may not play in the same adventure.

As mentioned in Chapter 5 of the Guide to Pathfinder Society Organized Play, if you have already played a sanctioned Adventure Path and wish to play it an additional time for any reason, you must inform the GM. If you spoil the plot for the table, the GM has the right to ask you to leave. You are free to replay the sanctioned Adventure Path in order to meet a minimum

PC requirement (see Chapter 7 of the Guide to Pathfinder Society Organized Play), but if you already have received a player Chronicle sheet for this sanctioned content for any of your PCs, you do not earn any additional rewards beyond having a good time.

APPLYING CREDIT

All players receive a Chronicle sheet unless, at the GM's discretion, they are replaying the Adventure Path for no credit. If a player uses an existing Pathfinder Society character for the adventure, he must apply the Chronicle sheet to that character immediately. A player who uses a pregenerated character must hold the Chronicle sheet until his character reaches the level of the pregenerated character.

A GM who runs any of the sanctioned content from the Reign of Winter Adventure Path may likewise apply the Chronicle sheet to one of her Pathfinder Society characters. The GM must decide which of her characters will receive the Chronicle sheet at the time the sanctioned Adventure Path content is completed and the Chronicle sheets are filled out.

Playing each distinct portion of Adventure Path sanctioned content from beginning to end earns a character 3 XP and 4 Prestige Points if that character is on the medium advancement track, or 1-1/2 XP and 2 Prestige Points for characters on the slow advancement track. There are no Day Job checks when playing a sanctioned Adventure Path.

If a character dies and is brought back to life, the GM must determine the rewards for that character. The minimum possible reward is 0 gp, 1 XP and 1 PP on the normal advancement track or 0 gp, 1/2 XP, and 1/2 Prestige Point on the slow advancement track. If a character participates in more than 2/3 of the module, she should receive the full rewards. GMs and active players are encouraged to hasten the return of any characters waiting to be raised from the dead.

Players who do not complete each game session earn 1/3 fewer gold pieces, 1 fewer XP, and 1 fewer Prestige Point for each session missed. This also applies to players who join later sessions; they receive 1/3 fewer gold pieces, 1 fewer XP, and 1 fewer Prestige Point for each session missed. In both cases, players earn a minimum of 1/3 gold pieces, 1 XP, and 1 PP. If a character earns more XP than she needs to reach her next level, she may not choose to switch advancement tracks at the new level earned.

As always, each player may receive credit for each Adventure Path volume once as a player and once as a GM, in either order. Players must accept a Chronicle sheet for their characters the first time they play any sanctioned content. A player may replay sanctioned content at the GM's discretion, but the player may not receive more than one Chronicle sheet per adventure.

RUNNING MULTI-SESSION ADVENTURES

Since sanctioned Adventure Paths are multi-session events, Pathfinder Society characters may not be used in other Pathfinder Society events until they receive a Chronicle sheet for the sanctioned content. GMs are advised to work with players who miss the final session of the module or Adventure Path in order for those players to receive their Chronicle sheets.

ABOUT PATHFINDER SOCIETY ORGANIZED PLAY

Pathfinder Society Organized Play is a worldwide fantasy roleplaying campaign that puts you in the role of an agent of the Pathfinder Society, a legendary league of explorers, archaeologists, and adventurers dedicated to discovering and chronicling the greatest mysteries and wonders of an ancient world beset by magic and evil. The campaign's home base is sprawling Absalom, the so-called City at the Center of the World that stands astride the great Inner Sea on the mountain-capped Isle of Kortos. A Pathfinder's adventures explore the dark alleys and political intrigues of Absalom between far-flung travels to the most interesting and exotic locales in the world of the Pathfinder Roleplaying Game.

In an organized play campaign, your character exists in a common setting shared by thousands of other gamers from around the world. You can take your character to any public Pathfinder Society event anywhere in the world, and while the Game Master and your companions might change every time you play, your character advances as normal. Over time, campaigning in an organized play environment offers a uniquely immersive experience, as your diverse companions add depth and character to the campaign world. It's also a great way to get in touch with other local gamers, meet new people, and play regularly without all the prep work and scheduling of a traditional campaign.

Alternatively, some players prefer to keep their Pathfinder Society experience limited to a familiar group of friends, using the Pathfinder Society character creation rules, adventure scenarios, and reward structure as the framework for a private campaign. Either approach is a valid way to experience the campaign, and many players enjoy a combination of public and private adventuring.

At the conclusion of a sanctioned Pathfinder Society event, each PC receives a Chronicle sheet, which serves as a record of the character's successes. Players use these to track XP, wealth, and their character's influence in the world around them. The Chronicle sheets for the all six parts of the Reign of Winter Adventure Path are contained in this document. For more information on the Pathfinder Society Organized Play campaign, on how to read the attached Chronicle sheets, and to find games in your area, check out the campaign's homepage at paizo.com/pathfinderSociety.

EMBERCHILL

Aura moderate evocation; CL 10th

Slot none; Price 12,806 gp; Weight 2 lbs.

DESCRIPTION

Emberchill is a +1 frost sickle whose blade is crafted entirely of magical ice. The weapon itself is immune to fire damage. A spellcaster can store a single spell of any level with the cold descriptor and a casting time of one standard action in Emberchill. The wielder can use the stored spell to counterspell any spell with the fire descriptor, provided that the stored cold spell is one or more levels higher than the target fire spell. The wielder must still ready an action and succeed at a Spellcraft check to identify the spell to counterspell it. Once stored in the weapon, the cold spell cannot be used for any other purpose, but the wielder can harmlessly discharge the stored spell as a swift action to make room for another spell. Abilities that grant the cold descriptor to spells, such as the frozen caress hex of the winter witch archetype, make those spells suitable for storing within Emberchill.

This oversized +2 warhammer is forged from blue steel and engraved with Abyssal runes. It is a two-handed weapon for Medium-sized creatures, who take a –2 penalty on attack rolls for wielding an oversized weapon. Once per day as a ranged touch attack, the wielder of a frost-thunder hammer can slam the weapon against the ground to release a crackling bolt of ice that shoots across the ground toward a single target up to 100 feet away. On a successful hit, the ice immediately freezes around the target, trapping it within a 9-inch-thick solid block of pale blue ice. The ice blocks line of effect to the entrapped victim, who is helpless (but can still breathe) and takes 9 points of cold damage per round until freed. The ice has hardness 0 and 27 hit points; if the ice is broken, the creature is freed. A creature can break the ice as a full-round action with a successful DC 24 Strength check.

RIMEBLADE

Aura moderate evocation [cold]; CL 8th

Slot none; Price 16,955 gp; Weight 4 lbs.

DESCRIPTION

This +1 frost scimitar has been forged from a single piece of razor-sharp, super-hardened ice. A rimeblade automatically resizes itself to match the size of its wielder, and if a rimeblade is damaged but not destroyed, the wielder can cause the blade to melt away and reform with full hit points as a full-round action.

Once per day on command, the wielder can transform a rimeblade into a beam of ice-cold flame called rimefire. The weapon is still wielded as scimitar, and attacks with the blade-like beam are melee touch attacks that deal 1d8+3 points of cold damage (regardless of the wielder's size). The wielder's Strength modifier doesn't apply to damage. In addition, a creature that takes cold damage from the rimefire beam is covered in clinging frost and is entangled for 1 round. The rimefire beam lasts for 1 minute, after which the weapon returns to its normal form.

In addition, once per day as a swift action before an attack, a rimeblade's wielder can cause the blade to glow with a pale blue radiance. On a successful attack, the rimeblade deals an additional 4d6 points of cold damage and causes the target to be staggered for 1 round. If the attack is a critical hit, the target is staggered for 1 minute instead. This effect ends after a single attack, regardless of whether the attack is successful or not.

Energized by the World Engine: Whether you used Miloslav's blueprints or your own strength, you have stored a fraction of the World Engine's power. As a swift action you may either touch a weapon to grant it the shocking burst weapon quality for 1 minute or apply the Elemental Spell (electricity) metamagic feat to a spell as you cast it without increasing the spell's level or casting time. Any electricity damage dealt by the spell or weapon property deals full damage to incorporeal creatures. When you use this boon, cross it off your Chronicle sheet.

Mantle of the Black Rider (Hunt for the Mad Monk): The unorthodox tactics of Rasputin's soldiers failed to stop you, and in turn the Mantle of the Black Rider grows in power.
